

WORKING HOLIDAY VISA

For New Zealand passport holder residing in New Zealand

It is essential that you read the information carefully and are fully informed prior to submitting your application.

PURPOSE OF THE WORKING HOLIDAY SCHEME

The Japan-New Zealand Working Holiday Scheme was established in 1985.

The reciprocal arrangement is intended to promote mutual understanding and friendship between the two countries. Visas are issued to young New Zealanders intent on contributing to these purposes.

The Scheme enables visa holders to enter Japan for a long-term holiday, and if necessary, work on a casual/temporary basis to supplement travel funds.

It is not for the purpose of regular part/full-time employment or study in Japan.

With this visa, New Zealand citizens need not obtain further permission to engage in remunerative activities while in Japan provided these activities do not contravene Japanese law regulating businesses offering food and entertainment as well as any other regulations in force which affect public order and good morals.

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for the grant of a Working Holiday Visa you must:

- 1) Be a New Zealand passport holder
- 2) currently residing in under our jurisdiction
